SERMON STUDY & DISCUSSION OUTLINE

Church Series:

- #1 – Why are we a church?
- #2 – Are we becoming the church God calls us to be?
- #3 – From the past to the future
- #4 – What will becoming God's church do to/for us?

10.03.2021 – What will becoming God's church do to/for us?

(This is the "so what or what's in it for me" question we usually ask after hearing a sermon/Bible teaching.)

So far, you've been hearing about re-opening the church

- We talked about HOPE
- We talked about reasons why we would want to reopen our church
- We talked about a vision or picture what St James could be (vision statement)
- But we need to ask one more thing: if we do become the church God calls us to, what will that do to and for us?

Wrong questions to ask which we usually ask anyway after a sermon

- So what?
- What's in it for me?
- What is God telling and promising you?

Remember it's not the building, traditions, name, etc. It's people's lives that matter.

- Matthew 6:33
- Psalm 37:3-4, 5-6, 11, 16-17, 18, 19, 21, 23-24, 25-26...

When we see SJ becoming the church God calls us to be, what would we see in our lives?

- First of all, remember this: you and your family matter to God!
- Little by little, all of us will see God's miracles in each of us and in our families.
- God's intention is to demonstrate His grace, mercy, and power through His church, including SJ.

Let us together say this prayer by the Apostle Paul

2 Thessalonians 1:3,11-12, NLT
