HI NEIGHBOR! (a church flyer sometime in 1969-1983)

Did you know that St. James is a historic congregation? The family of the first American Governor of California worshipped here. The church stands in the most racially integrated area in the world. St. James has people of many racial and religious backgrounds taking part in its services and social activities.

Our pastor, Rev. R. Mark Coonradt, D.M., B.D. (Princeton) is a young man from Hoosick Falls, NY (home of the late Granma Moses), who encourages every activity that can benefit the community. He wrote the off-Broadway musical "Great Scot!", has taught, lived, and travelled in Switzerland, Israel, Russia, Greece, England, and France.

Constant help is supplied by Father Roger Friedrich, an Episcopal priest who graduated from Penn State University and Virginia Theological Seminary, and Rev. Donald Gentry, a Southern Baptist minister from Alabama.

Guest speakers recently at our Sunday services have come from many religions. These have included Roman Catholic, Jewish, Buddhist, Shinto, Zen Buddhist, Mormon, Salvation Army, and Jehovah's Witness. A continuation of ecumenical services is planned for the various special seasons, particularly Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Lent.

Here are a few of the things happening at St. James... Fun programs and suppers for the whole family, commencing in October with Tom Taylor teaching Folk and Square Dancing... Bowling (our team won the championship this year and many times in the past)... Choir for those who like to sing... Chang International Dancers... Piano lessons... Scouts... Senior Citizens... Women's Group who have a busy program including daytime jaunts... Midweek Prayer Group... Weight Watchers... Pastoral and marriage counselling... Help for alcoholics and suicides and drug abuse... Tree planting and ecology programs... Dramatic productions...

We want you to get involved... In any of these and other community activities sponsored by St. James this Fall. This is a chance for you to get to know some of your neighbors better and help solve the problems of the neighborhood. Someone has to do it, and with enough help, we can accomplish anything.

Just drop in. Our service is at 10:30 Sunday mornings with coffee hour following most Sundays.
